Bolshevik Activities in Mexico Aired in Investigation Being Conducted.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 23.—According to documentary evidence placed before the senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation, President Carranza and a few of his principal lieutenants instigated and directed the long series of raids on American properties that began along the Rio Grande early in 1915.

This evidence was supported by testimony by John A. Walls, district attorney at Brownsville, Tex.; L. R. Barnes, in charge of the United States army intelligence work along the border during the war, and other witnesses.

The committee obtained from them and from documentary evidence information purporting to show that not only were the highest Mexican officials cognizant of the program of the raiding parties, which was carried out under the provisions of the "plan of San Diego," but that as late as June, 1915, they were still giving encouragement to and aiding those who participated in those raids in plans inimical to the United States.

More information was obtained as to the success encountered by Germans in bidding for the sympathy and support of Mexico during the war and the present alleged drift toward Bolshevism.

T. B. Altendorf, a Pole, who was in the intelligence service of the American army during the war, was placed on the witness stand long enough to identify Mario Mendez, the director of telegraphs in Mexico, as one of those whom Minister Von Eckhardt kept on his pay roll during the war. Altendorf said Mendez's job was to see that copies of all messages from the United States bearing on military affairs were delivered to the German legation.

A new note on the Bolshevik movement in Mexico came from a copy of a letter written by Linn Gale to L. C. A. K. Martens, the Bolshevik representative at New York. "Knowing you are the financial agent of the Russian society in New York," Gale wrote, "I take the liberty of asking you if you can give me financial aid in my propaganda in Mexico." He added the explanation that he was the editor of a magazine devoted to the furtherance of radicalism. He explained that he went to Mexico to evade the army draft, "and since then," he added, "I have established very close relations with the Mexican government, which I have urged to Bolshevize the country and which will, I believe, do so. I have been extended unusual help in various ways by President Carranza and his prime minister, Secretary Delaruga."

GRIP EPIDEMIC IS PREVENTED AT HOME

Care and watchfulness has prevented an outbreak of the grip epidemic at the O. S. and S. O. Home, where last winter over 700 children and employees fell victims to the malady within two weeks.

There has not been a case of the trouble so far among the children, according to Dr. W. A. Galloway, who has charge of the health of the children since the death of Dr. W. C. Hewitt.

Teachers and matrons are all taking special precautions to forestall the malady. The moment a child shows an indication of illness or of a cold, he is sent to the hospital ward until his case is diagnosed or danger of infection past.

BEAVERS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

The St. Marys Beavers, the outfit that defeated the Bradys here last week, added another game to their list of victories by defeating the Dayton Durions at Dayton, Thursday night, 71-23. Paul at center secured 16 field goals, while Laue, who was high man in the game here, annexed 11 baskets.

INCREASED SALARIES DEMANDED
BY CITY OFFICIALS THURSDAY

Manager, Solicitor, and Treasurer, Present Claims For Bigger Wages Based On Enlargement of Duties
Of Administrative Offices.

A proposed increase in salaries of certain administrative officers drew fire at the meeting of the City Commission, Thursday night. The proposition was first submitted to the commission members at a star chamber session of the body at the regular meeting two weeks ago, Thursday. At that time the commission instructed the City Manager to prepare and submit the amount of increase asked for at the next meeting.

The proposed increases for certain officers was the subject of a warm discussion when it was presented by City Manager Riddle at the regular meeting Thursday. Owing to the absence of Commissioner Frazer, the matter was not voted upon, it being decided that the question should be taken up at the next meeting when there is a full attendance.

The increases which were the subject of debate Thursday evening, were for the office of City Manager, City Solicitor and City Treasurer. An increase for the office of auditor was not proposed as the newly appointed auditor, T. H. Zell has another source of income.

Work Increased.

It was pointed out that the City Solicitor's work has been greatly increased along with the responsibility of his office, and the proposition favored an increase in the solicitor's salary. City Solicitor J. E. Finney is now getting $900 a year. The amount of the proposed increase was not made public. With the increased assessments, the work of the City Treasurer's office is increased and it was proposed that City Treasurer J. E. Sutton be given an increase. He is now getting $150 a year.

City Manager Riddle asked for an increase amounting to about twenty per cent, which he pointed out was considerably less than salaries offered him in connection with positions in other cities during the past year. The manager pointed out that he had so arranged the city's finances as to be able to give members of the Fire Department, a 55 per cent increase and members of the police department, a 40 per cent increase as well as to keep the city property up and live within the income, so that the cost of operation is less than most any other city. The city manager was supported in his claim by President Charters of the Commission, although there was much heated discussion against the increases, unless the city was financially able to raise all salaries proportionately. The question will likely come to a vote at the next regular meeting when it is hoped that all members will be present.

The proposition of publishing an annual report of the city's affairs, was submitted to the commission and the manager was instructed to investigate the cost of printing such a report. The state department of inspection and accounting found that the city had much valuable material and papers saved in a crude form and recommended that they be printed in booklet form and submitted to the voters.

New York, Jan. 23.—The 27 passengers, including 19 women and children, from the water-logged transport, Powhatan, are enroute for New York today, on the steamship Northern Pacific, while the helpless transport is being towed into Halifax. The Northern Pacific is scheduled to reach this port some time tomorrow night.

"SLIDE KELLY, SLIDE." THRILLING MOVIE
SERIAL OF WEATHER MAN, MAKES BIG HIT

The 15th reel of the Weather Man's super-production, "Slide, Kelly, Slide," or "Mixing the Weather Offerings," began with a rain on Friday.

While many did not like the offering, the versatility of the Weather Man in arranging and distributing his features was heartily applauded.

The weather serial began three weeks ago, when an apparently tame rain proved its treachery by turning into a thin glare of ice. The next morning a heavy fall of soft snow obliterated the ice, but made the going difficult.

Sleet and rain which froze when it struck the snow, were the contributory causes to a thick crust which was added as finishing touches.

Since then, the offering has been an ensemble of snow, ice, rain, sleet and a mixture of these ices. While there was very little system to the order of these offerings, the general result seems to be nearly satisfactory.

Rain again added itself to the melee, Thursday afternoon, and it froze on the sidewalks, converting them into a glare of almost impassible ice. Automobiles were forced to slide along in the ready-made ruts, unable to get out because of the ice. Pedestrians found getting about almost impossible.

The heavy rain of Friday added insult to injury. The rain washed off the ice until it was as slick as the proverbial glass, and walking, even in the middle of the street, was almost a forgotten art.

Automobile owners, who have been driving cars for years, assert that the last three weeks have been worse on the driver of the car than any previous time in their experience. It is thrilling picture of the transfer of the Powhatan passengers, after five days and nights of peril on the helpless ship. They were carried in small boats through heavy seas at night under the glare of searchlights. None of the passengers were reported today to be any worse for their thrilling adventure.

The Powhatan is in tow of the Canadian steamship, Lady Laurier, with the U. S. destroyer Leary, acting as "rudder."

The U. S. destroyer, Sharkey, and the coast guard cutter, Ossipee, are standing by.

ICE CREEPERS IN DEMAND
AS ICE COVERS STREETS.

The ice-creeper, heretofore scorned instrument in safety first in walking, has come in to its own.

It was impossible to buy a pair of ice-creepers in any Xenia store Thursday afternoon. Hardware store and other places where the creepers were sold, did not have any on hand.

The continued spell of slippery sidewalks was the big factor in the moving of the ice-creepers. Those loaded on shelves for years were disposed of in short order to the traveling public.

Jacob Kany set a precedent in a new form of ice-creeper, Friday morning. Mr. Kany engineered his way up town with a burlap sack tied firmly around each foot.

It would have taken a submarine to undermine Mr. Kany's equilibrium.

almost impossible to get a machine out of a rut and even chains are helpless to prevent skidding.

Truck owners, in cases where it was at all possible, refused to send their machines out Friday. Drivers compelled to go out on these kind of rides were taking a big chance, they said. Pleasure was noticeably absent in the driving of pleasure cars in the driving of pleasure cars.

Fortunately, interurban service was not tied up particularly by the new glare of ice. Trains were belated because of the weather, however.

Cummings Replies to Bryan.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared that if complaints of William Jennings Bryan as made in addresses in Norfolk and Richmond were based on the chairman's attendance at the inauguration dinner given Governor Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey Tuesday night, at Newark, the former secretary of state's comments "are without merit." Cummings says his attitude toward candidates is one of "impartial neutrality."

Circular Letter Calls Attention to Fact That Compulsory
Extradition Would Break up International Rights of Asylum.

The Hague, Jan. 23.—Holland has formally refused to surrender the ex-kaiser for trial by an allied tribunal, a news agency announced here today.

Holland's reply was sent to Paris the text of the note will be made public Friday night. The first official forecast of the contents of the Dutch reply to the allied request for the kaiser was carried by the International News Service on Thursday.

Sir William Sutherland, the parliamentary secretary to Premier Lloyd George, was quoted in London cablegrams to the International News Service as stating that Holland refused to give up the former kaiser Thursday. It is expected that the claim could not be made by a third power.

It was understood at that time that a summary of the Dutch reply was in Downing street so that Sir William spoke with authority.

The International News Service was also first to announce that the reply had been dispatched from The Hague to Paris. These news cablegrams contained the exclusive information that the allies did not contemplate a demand for the extradition of the former German crown prince.

Berlin, Jan. 23.—According to information received here today from The Hague, Holland issued a circular note appealing to all neutrals to protest against the compulsory extradition of the ex-kaiser on the ground that it would break up the internationally recognized rights of asylum.

London, Jan. 23.—Official text of Holland's reply to the allies request for the extradition of the ex-kaiser is expected in Downing street this afternoon.

The foreign office is convinced that the answer is a refusal and that it will involve long diplomatic exchanges later on.

The Manchester Guardian understands that Holland indicates indirectly that there is a possibility the former emperor may be extradited at a call from the league of nations if the tribunal which is to try him is really international in make up. Otherwise, according to this newspaper, Holland would refuse.

POWATHAN'S PASSENGERS TRANSFERRED.

New York, Jan. 23.—All the 271 passengers on board the disabled army transport Powhatan have been transferred to the transport Northern Pacific and are on their way to New York. This news was received here in a wireless message confirming previous reports from Halifax. The transfer of the passengers was effected under good weather conditions and without any accident occurring.

OFFICERS FORMULATE PLANS

Will Wage War on Moonshiners in Southern West Virginia.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 23.—Receipt of evidence that moonshining activities in the mountains of southern West Virginia have increased since the dawn of national prohibition brought the announcement from G. C. Holt, internal revenue agent, that he had formulated plans for an extensive campaign against liquor law violators. Fifteen officers, fresh from the Columbus training "school" for prohibition agents, reported to Mr. Holt for duty, and he said a force will be detailed immediately to go into the hills and wage war on makers of illicit whisky.

Pall of Dreariness Hangs Over Winnipeg
As City Is Without Newspapers for Week

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 23.—Today completed one week during which more than 1,000,000 persons comprising the population of the City of Winnipeg and the province of Manitoba and Saskatchewan have been without daily newspapers. It has been the gloomiest week within their remembrance, not even excepting the early days of the war.

A week ago today the papers in the two provinces were forced to suspend publication, the result of the treaty with the Fort Frances Newspaper Manufacturing Company ending in the latter refusing to ship paper here.

What it means for a good sized city to be without daily newspapers has been demonstrated here. Ordinarily life is gay in the streets of Winnipeg at this season of the year, but over the city now there hangs a pall of dreariness.

The first effect was the depriving of the citizens of authentic information of news of the day. As the result, the wildest rumors have been current throughout the city. Having no circulating medium of intelligence, the great mass of the population is unable to discern what and what not to believe.

Newspapers officers made an effort to prevent this by posting bulletins in front of their offices, but this is wholly inadequate, and reaches comparatively few citizens. University students issue small "fly sheets" daily, but these fall so short of requirements that citizens do not bother to take them home.

There has been a tremendous decrease in business everywhere. The mercantile houses, usually crowded by bargain hunters at this time of year, are suffering great losses.

"One section alone in my department has a falling off of $3,000 daily in receipts," said the head of the concern.

The same condition is true of nearly all other lines of business. Theaters are heavy losers. Even the street railroads are affected, the lack of advertised attractions and general depression causing many persons to remain at home.

GARDNER BILL PASSED; LOCAL OPTION KILLED

Senate Ratifies Measure Passed by House by 24-7 Vote Thursday.

CRABBE ACT PASSED

Wright Amendments On Sale of Toilet Articles Badly Defeated.

Columbus, Jan. 23.—The senate passed the taxation committee amendments to the Gardner bill, taking out the local option feature put in by the house. The house refused to concur in the senate amendments, whereupon the bill went to a conference committee.

The senate vote was 24 to 7. Snyder and Miller, Republicans, voted against it. Aknew, Norris, Wright, Berry and Holl, Democrats, supported it.

The senate also passed the bill permitting cities to issue deficiency bonds to meet operating expenses this year. It passed the house Wednesday.

The joint taxation committee introduced the proposed constitutional amendment to limit bonded debt as follows: Counties, 2 per cent of the real estate duplicate; townships, 1½ per cent; school districts, 3 per cent; and municipalities, 4½ per cent.

Prediction is made that the house will not accept a conference committee report on the Gardner bill unless it leaves optional with taxing districts to vote whether they want to lift sinking fund and interest levies from the 10-mill limit of the Smith law.

The senate passed the Crabbe enforcement act by a vote of 25 to 7. Amendments offered by Senator Wright of Cleveland to prohibit the manufacture and sale of toilet articles, patent medicines and flavoring extracts containing alcohol were voted down. The bill has already passed the house and now goes to the governor for his approval. The emergency clause was not attempted by the senate.

The workmen's compensation law was reinforced when the house passed the bill forcing all employers to come within the provisions of the bill or face receivership proceedings in court. The bill was passed by the senate last week. Attorney General Price drew and championed the bill.

The International News Service was also first to announce that the reply had been dispatched from The Hague to Paris. These news cablegrams contained the exclusive information that the allies did not contemplate a demand for the extradition of the former German crown prince.

AGREEMENT ON ARTICLE 10 IS BEING SOUGHT

Senate Leaders Considering Lodge Reservation In Desperate Attempt

PROGRESS REPORTED

Decisive Action Expected As Members are Hopeful of Some Plan.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The bipartisan committee of senate leaders reported progress toward complete agreement on compromise reservations to the peace treaty.

The Lodge reservation to article 10 of the league of nations covenant, the pivotal reservation of the whole controversy, was considered almost exclusively at the session of the four Republican and five Democratic leaders, and spokesmen for both factions joined in expressions of hope of ultimate settlement. One of the Democratic leaders said he looked for decisive action soon on the controverted reservation, but that conferences on other reservations probably would continue into next week.

Many propositions for changes in the Lodge reservation on article 10 of the league text were considered. Nothing in the nature of an ultimatum was put forth by either side it was stated.

Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey, said that he would not be bound to accept any compromise the bipartisan conference may evolve. "I wish to state," said Senator Frelinghuysen, "that I will not be bound by any agreement, tentative or otherwise, which in any way materially changes in substance the reservations adopted by a majority vote of the senate."

In the negotiations as to a reservation affecting article 10 it is reported that the Republican committee is making material concessions regarding the form and language of the reservation, but is remaining adamant against any change in the fundamental principles of the Lodge reservation. Of the many proposals received from the Democratic leaders for a substitute the proposition said to be receiving principal attention, with prospects of adoption, is along the lines of the McKellar-Kendrick draft, declaring that the United States assumes no obligation to protect foreign territory by use of her armed forces or an economic boycott without specific action and approval by congress and reserve as the privilege of offering good offices in adjustment of foreign disputes.

SQUIRE DONS SKATES AS WEATHER PERMITS

It will be hard for friends of Magistrate J. E. McPherson to believe that the Justice had a skate on Friday!

But nevertheless the 'Squire took the opportunity to prove his youthfulness and agility by skating, to work, Friday afternoon on his old time pair of ice skates.

Berlin, Jan. 23.—According to information received here today from The Hague, Holland issued a circular note appealing to all neutrals to protest against the compulsory extradition of the ex-kaiser on the ground that it would break up the internationally recognized rights of asylum.

London, Jan. 23.—Official text of Holland's reply to the allies request for the extradition of the ex-kaiser is expected in Downing street this afternoon.

The foreign office is convinced that the answer is a refusal and that it will involve long diplomatic exchanges later on. The Manchester Guardian understands that Holland indicates indirectly that there is a possibility the former emperor may be extradited at a call from the league of nations if the tribunal which is to try him it really international in make up. Otherwise, according to this newspaper, Holland would refuse.

Powhatan's Passengers Transferred. New York, Jan. 23.—All the 271 passengers on board the disabled army transport Powhatan have been transferred to the transport Northern Pacific and are on their way to New York. This news was received here in a wireless message confirming previous reports from Halifax. The transfer of the passengers was effected under good weather conditions and without any accident occurring.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND NEVER SUSPECT IT

APPLICANTS FOR INSURANCE OFTEN REJECTED

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish to first test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure to mention the Gazette of Republican.

The friends of Mrs. Raper Hagler of near this city, will be sorry to learn that her condition is very much worse and no hope is now entertained for her recovery. She is suffering with organic heart trouble and gall affection.

Mrs. W. O. Custis, who is chairman of the nurses' committee of the local Red Cross said that she was kept busy at the telephone all day Thursday answering calls from doctors and others who were trying to secure nurses, but that she was unable to give them any aid.

Cedarville defeated Port William, at the rink, Thursday night, in the final game of the basketball tournament being played this week, by a score of 21 to 15. Tonight, Cedarville will clash with Bellbrook in the final game to determine the winner of the tournament.

Cedarville defeated Bowersville 33-11 and Port William humbled Beaver Creek 33-15 in the second section of the preliminary games, Thursday night.

The contest between Cedarville and Port William was the best that has been played so far in the tournament and was won only by a desperate rally in the last few minutes, after Port William had taken the first half 12-5.

Ruse, who went in the last half, was the main factor in Cedarville's victory as he caged the pill four times. McClain and Davis also played well. Atlee and Haley were the mainstays of the Port William aggregation.

The Port William-Beaver Creek was a tame affair, as Cedarville had little opposition and was not pressed hard at any time, leading at the end of the half 19-6.

The second half was somewhat improved, with a better brand of ball displayed by each team. McClain was the big noise for Cedarville, scoring ten baskets, while Corne and Myers also played well. Ream and Kelso were the best performers for Bowersville.

Cedarville 33. Bowersville, 11. Davis ..... L. F. .... Ream. Corne ..... R. F. .... Kelso. McClain ..... C. .... Meriweather. Meyers ..... L. G. .... Stewart. Townsley ..... R. G. .... Archart. The Port William-Bowersville clash was expected to be a hair raiser but the Beaver lads failed to furnish much in the way of opposition, and the game was a little one-sided, the half ending 15-2.

Beaver Creek came back with a rush at the beginning of the second half, that swept their opponents momentarily off their feet, and ran up their score within a few points of tying, but were unable to maintain the pace and the Port William squad started a spurt of their own, which tucked the game safely away.

Atlee played a fast game for Port William, leading his team in scoring, while Woods played a good floor game. H. Brill was the big noise for Beaver and scored all but three of his team's points.

Port William, 33. Beaver Creek, 15. H. Spiers ..... L. F. .... H. Brill. Atlee ..... R. F. .... L. Brill. Haley ..... C. .... Williamson. Woods ..... L. G. .... Ater. Spiers ..... R. G. .... Durnbaugh. Referee, Barr. Field goals, Atlee, 6; H. Spiers, 2; Haley, 2; Woods, 5; Spiers, H. Brill, 6; L. Brill. Poul goals, Haley, Durnbaugh.

The games again drew a good crowd, but the bad weather prevented many from attending. All teams again played a clean article of basketball, which speaks well for the county talent.

The finals of the tournament will be played tonight, when Bellbrook will clash with Cedarville for the possession of the championship.

CONGRESSMEN AGREE TO FURTHER PLAN

The Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from Congressman S. D. Fess, promising his support in the movement to have the increased census to be added by the extension of the boundary limits here, recorded in the official census for this year.

Secretary Tingley wrote Congressman Fess, Senators Pomerene and Harding and the head of the federal census bureau at Washington, requesting that Xenia be permitted to take the census of the additional district and that it be officially added to the totals taken by the government enumerators in the old corporate limits.

Congressman Fess has already answered the request of the local organization, and expressed his desire to do whatever possible to influence the census bureau to accept the belated figures. It is expected that the addition will add greatly to the population total of this city and for this reason the Chamber of Commerce is anxious that the entire district be recorded.

It is expected that the addition will add greatly to the population total of this city and for this reason the Chamber of Commerce is anxious that the entire district be recorded.

CEARVILLE DEFEATS PORT WILLIAM TEAM IN SEMI-FINAL ACT

Cedarville defeated Port William, at the rink, Thursday night, in the final game of the basketball tournament being played this week, by a score of 21 to 15. Tonight, Cedarville will clash with Bellbrook in the final game to determine the winner of the tournament.

Cedarville defeated Bowersville 33-11 and Port William humbled Beaver Creek 33-15 in the second section of the preliminary games, Thursday night.

The contest between Cedarville and Port William was the best that has been played so far in the tournament and was won only by a desperate rally in the last few minutes, after Port William had taken the first half 12-5.

Ruse, who went in the last half, was the main factor in Cedarville's victory as he capped the pill four times. McClain and Davis also played well. Atlee and Haley were the mainstays of the Port William aggregation. Cedarville 21. Port William 15. Corne ..... R. F. .... Atlee Townsend ..... L. F. .... H. Spiers McClain ..... C. .... Haley Meyers ..... R. G. .... Woods Davis ..... L. G. .... Spiers Referee, Barr. Timer, Douthet. Scorer, Bales. Sub, Ruse for Townsend. Field goals, Corne, McClain, 4; Ruse, 4; Atlee, H. Spiers, Haley, 2; Spiers. Poul goals, McClain, 3; Haley, 5.

The Port William-Beaver Creek was a tame affair, as Cedarville had little opposition and was not pressed hard at any time, leading at the end of the half 19-6.

The second half was somewhat improved with a better brand of ball displayed by each team. McClain was the big noise for Cedarville, scoring ten baskets, while Corne and Meyers also played well. Ream and Kelso were the best performers for Bowersville.

Cedarville 33. Bowersville, 11. Davis ..... L. F. .... Ream Corne ..... R. F. .... Kelso McClain ..... C. .... Meriwether Meyers ..... L. G. .... Stewart Townsend ..... R. G. .... Aterhart Referee, Barr. Timer, Faires. Scorer, Bales. Field goals, Davis, Corne, 2; McClain, 10; Myers, 3; Ream, 2; Kelso, 2. Poul goals, McClain, Kelso, 3.

The Port William-Bowersville clash was expected to be a hair raiser but the Beaver lads failed to furnish much in the way of opposition, and the game was a little one-sided, the half ending 15-2.

Beaver Creek came back with a rush at the beginning of the second half, that swept their opponents momentarily off their feet, and ran up their score within a few points of tying, but were unable to maintain the pace and the Port William squad started a spurt of their own, which tucked the game safely away.

Atlee played a fast game for Port William, leading his team in scoring, while Woods played agood floor game. H. Brill was the big noise for Beaver and scored all but three of his team's points.

Port William, 33. Beaver Creek, 15. H. Spiers ..... L. F. .... H. Brill Atlee ..... R. F. .... L. Brill Haley ..... C. .... Williamson Woods ..... L. G. .... Ater Spiers ..... R. G. .... Durnbaugh Referee, Barr. Field goals, Atlee, 6; H. Spiers, 2; Haley, 2; Woods, 5; Spiers, H. Brill, 6; L. Brill. Poul goals, Haley, Durnbaugh.

The games again drew a good crowd, but the bad weather prevented many from attending. All teams again played a clean article of basketball, which speaks well for the county talent.

The finals of the tournament will be played tonight, when Bellbrook will clash with Cedarville for the possession of the championship.

PROUD OF THEIR HIGHWAY

Edinburgh Citizens, Not Without Reason, Claim Princes Street is Superior to Any.

When Edinburgh began to outgrow its streets and run over into the countryside the citizens took the matter in hand and decided to enlarge their city. They started with a drab little street which they built over from the ground-up and called it Princes street. From the day its first stone was laid the Scots of Edinburgh determined that Princes street should be the most beautiful street imaginable.

Today Princes street is, to the Scot, the most beautiful street in the world. The stranger from another land struggles to remain true to home attractions and compromises by pronouncing Princes street one of the most beautiful streets in the world. On one side of the Scottish main street are ranged the best hotels, shops, and clubs in Edinburgh. On the other are terraces and monuments with a frame of trees and grass.

From this street you can see the towers of Edinburgh castle standing out against the sky. Here are statues of Edinburgh's great and gardens where the Scots can take the air without going to the outskirts of the city. Of the statues, the most beautiful is that of Scotland's favorite writer, Sir Walter Scott. An arch decorated with many spires forms a covering for a marble statue of the novelist. About him in corners of the arch are small statues of his greatest characters.

Princes street is beautiful because the Scots have never swerved from their purpose of making it so. Nothing can be added to Princes street, no structure built without the approval of the city.

A Lucky Throw.

I awoke one night just in time to see a man getting out of my window. I picked up an ink bottle, the only thing handy, and threw it at him. It was a lucky throw, for, although it didn't hit him, it struck the window and splattered him liberally with red ink, which identified him later.—Chicago Tribune.

HAD INDIGESTION WAS NERVOUS AND SUFFERED MONTHS

Other Medicines Failed; Got Hypo-Cod—Two Bottles Brought Quick Relief.

EATS HEARTY MEALS AND WORKING STEADY

"I recommend Earle's Hypo-Cod because it did me more good than months of doctoring and other medicines and I've only taken two bottles of it."—A. A. Brown, carpenter foreman in Dayton and residing at 14 S. Clark St.

"I was suffering with indigestion so bad that I seemed to have a weight on my chest after every meal. A pressure that was most uncomfortable. I had to be very careful what I ate. My sleep was restless too because of this trouble and I would jump almost out of my bed and wake up startled and frustrated often. I took Earle's Hypo-Cod thinking if it didn't do me any good it wouldn't kill me and I'd doctor for months and taken so many other medicines I was willing to try one more anyhow but Earle's Hypo-Cod is the real thing. I am on my second bottle and I sleep from eight o'clock at night until five next morning without turning over or waking up once. I wake up feeling good and am working steady. I can eat anything I want and the indigestion is all gone. After taking medicine and treatments for eighteen months and then to find that two bottles of Earle's Hypo-Cod would do all this for me was surely a surprise. I recommend it to the sky," continued Mr. Brown whose address in Dayton is given below.

The man above who has lived in Dayton 17 years and is known all over town is only one of thousands who have improved their digestion, strengthened their whole system and built up their disease resisting vitality wonderfully through the use of Earle's Hypo-Cod. It is the wisest sort of precaution to thus tone up the system as winter approaches. Come down to the store nearest you tonight and get a bottle.

Note—Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by Sohn's Drug Store, opposite Court House, and all leading druggists in nearby towns. Price $1.25 plus 5c war tax.

WOULD BREAK OLD CUSTOM

Modern Girl Not Satisfied With Second Place, Even When Inscribed on Her Tombstone.

There's a certain old cemetery out in Jersey where, now and again, when visiting friends the writer strolls on Sunday. Many a story lingers about a neglected grave or a haughty headstone.

But two very-much-alive young people furnished her diversion one afternoon. They were engaged, that was plain, and proud of it. Theirs was a happy silence, broken by the girl's clear soprano.

"Do you know, George, what I've been noticing in this cemetery?"

Apparently George did not.

"Why, on almost every tombstone marking the grave of a man and his wife, his name comes first, with hers tucked modestly below. Take this": And she read aloud, "Thomas Springer. Died April 22, 1842. Age eighty-five years. His wife Annie, died June 2, 1838, aged forty-three years. You see even if the wife dies first her place on the tombstone is at the bottom. Isn't it queer?"

George had evidently not bothered much about tombstones. He'd been too busy looking at her. But it didn't really matter much, he thought.

"Oh, but it does," she argued. "It's another attack on a woman's individuality. Now, when I die, much as I care for you, I don't want my name to be a postscript on your tombstone."

Naturally George assured her that it shouldn't be, and they strolled on, in tune with the infinite and the weather. It had been a glimpse of the twentieth century girl that would have amazed Annie Springer, at rest beneath the moss-grown granite.

A 100 PER CENT INCREASE IN 2 WEEKS TIME FOR DAYTON MAN.

Declares His Strength and Endurance is so Much Greater Since He Took the New Medicine, Deco.

It Saved Him An Operation for Piles, he declares.

"I have improved a hundred per cent in the last two weeks and don't feel like the same disheartened person," says Mr. Chas. McClintock of 419 Jefferson St., Dayton, O., who is an assembler at the Dayton Pump Co.

"I was just going to have an operation for piles, but hated to undertake it. I heard so much of Deco that I decided to try it. Ours being operated on, as it was reputed to be such a fine bowel remedy, I am mighty glad now that I did, for I'm so much better that it's no operation for me now. Deco got my bowels to moving gently, but regularly every day; gave me a splendid appetite, built up my strength, and I go to my job feeling better than for months past. Deco is a great medicine and I expect to boost it every chance I get."

Deco is a new herbal system tonic, tones up and strengthens the nervous system; invigorates the entire body, restores energy and vitality, tones up the digestive organs, puts the stomach in good condition, relieves indigestion, gastritis and sour stomach, stimulates a sluggish liver, strengthens weak kidneys, soothes tired nerves, relieves constipation, and creates a good appetite.

All good druggists now sell Deco and it is highly recommended in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

The stranger from another land struggles to remain true to home attractions and compromises by pronouncing Princes street one of the most beautiful streets in the world. On one side of the Scottish main street are ranged the best hotels, shops, and clubs in Edinburgh. On the other are terraces and monuments with a frame of trees and grass.

From this street you can see the towers of Edinburgh castle standing out against the sky. Here are statues of Edinburgh's great and gardens where the Scots can take the air without going to the outskirts of the city. Of the statues, the most beautiful is that of Scotland's favorite writer, Sir Walter Scott. An arch decorated with many spires forms a covering for a marble statue of the novelist. About him in corners of the arch are small statues of his greatest characters.

Princes street is beautiful because the Scots have never swerved from their purpose of making it so. Nothing can be added to Princes street, no structure built without the approval of the city.

A Lucky Throw.

I awoke one night just in time to see a man getting out of my window. I picked up an ink bottle, the only thing handy, and threw it at him. It was a lucky throw, for, although it didn't hit him, it struck the window and splattered him liberally with red ink, which identified him later.—Chicago Tribune.

HAD INDIGESTION WAS NERVOUS AND SUFFERED MONTHS

Other Medicines Failed; Got Hypo-Cod—Two Bottles Brought Quick Relief.

EATS HEARTY MEALS AND WORKING STEADY

"I recommend Earle's Hypo-Cod because it did me more good than months of doctoring and other medicines and I've only taken two bottles of it," asserted A. A. Brown, carpenter foreman in Dayton and residing at 116 St. Clair St.

"I was suffering with indigestion so bad that I seemed to have a weight on my chest after every meal. A pressure that was most uncomfortable. I had to be very careful what I ate. My sleep was restless too because of this trouble and I would jump almost out of my bed and wake up startled and frustrated often. I took Earle's Hypo-Cod thinking if it didn't do me any good it wouldn't kill me and I'd doctor for months and taken so many other medicines I was willing to try one more anyhow but Earle's Hypo-Cod is the real thing. I am on my second bottle and I sleep from eight o'clock at night until five next morning without turning over or waking up once. I wake up feeling good and am working steady. I can eat anything I want and the indigestion is all gone. After taking medicine and treatments for eighteen months and then to find that two bottles of Earle's Hypo-Cod would do all this for me was surely a surprise. I recommend it to the sky," continued Mr. Brown whose address in Dayton is given below.

The man above who has lived in Dayton 17 years and is known all over town is only one of thousands who have improved their digestion, strengthened their whole system and built up their disease resisting vitality wonderfully through the use of Earle's Hypo-Cod. It is the wisest sort of precaution to thus tone up the system as winter approaches. Come down to the store nearest you tonight and get a bottle.

Note:—Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by Sohn's Drug Store, opposite Court House, and all leading druggists in nearby towns. Price $1.25 plus 5c war tax.

WOULD BREAK OLD CUSTOM

Modern Girl Not Satisfied With Second Place, Even When Inscribed on Her Tombstone.

There's a certain old cemetery out in Jersey where, now and again, when visiting friends the writer strolls on Sunday. Many a story lingers about a neglected grave or a haughty headstone.

But two very-much-alive young people furnished her diversion one afternoon. They were engaged, that was plain, and proud of it. Theirs was a happy silence, broken by the girl's clear soprano.

"Do you know, George, what I've been noticing in this cemetery?" Apparently George did not.

"Why, on almost every tombstone marking the grave of a man and his wife, his name comes first, with hers tucked modestly below. 'Take this': And she read aloud, 'Thomas Springer. Died April 22, 1842. Age eighty-five years. His wife Annie, died June 2, 1838, aged forty-three years. You see even if the wife dies first her place on the tombstone is at the bottom. Isn't it queer?"

George had evidently not bothered much about tombstones. He'd been too busy looking at her. But it didn't really matter much, he thought.

"Oh, but it does," she argued. "It's another attack on a woman's individuality. Now, when I die, much as I care for you, I don't want my name to be a postscript on your tombstone."

Naturally George assured her that it shouldn't be, and they strolled on, in tune with the infinite and the weather. It had been a glimpse of the twentieth century girl that would have amazed Annie Springer, at rest beneath the moss-grown granite.

A 100 PER CENT INCREASE IN 2 WEEKS TIME FOR DAYTON MAN.

Declares His Strength and Endurance is so Much Greater Since He Took the New Medicine, Drecto.

It Saved Him An Operation for Piles, he declares.

"I have improved a hundred per cent in the last two weeks and don't feel like the same disheartened person, says Mr. Chas. McClintock of 419 Jefferson St., Dayton, O., who is an assembler at the Dayton Pump Co.

"I was just going to have an operation for piles, but hated to undertake it. I heard so much of Drecto that I decided to try it before being operated on, as it was reputed to be such a fine bowel remedy. I am mighty glad now that I did, for I'm so much better that it's no operation for me now. Drecto got my bowels to moving gently, but regularly every day; gave me a splendid appetite, built up my strength, and I go to my job feeling better than for months past. Drecto is a great medicine and I expect to boost it every chance I get."

Drecto is a new herbal system tonic, tones up and strengthens the nervous system; invigorates the entire body, restores energy and vitality, tones up the digestive organs, puts the stomach in good condition, relieves indigestion, gastritis and sour stomach, stimulates a sluggish liver, strengthens weak kidneys, soothes tired nerves, relieves constipation, and creates a good appetite. All good druggists now sell Drecto and it is highly recommended in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

Tanlac, the Celebrated Medicine Which Has Been Accomplishing Remarkable Results in the United States and Canada, Will Now Be Sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill—Remarkable Sales Record of Sixteen Million Bottles Phenomenal and Unprecedented.

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout the United States and Canada, and which has been having a phenomenal sale wherever it has been introduced, will now be sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill. The amazing success achieved by this medicine in only five years' time is not only phenomenal, but unprecedented.

The discovery of Tanlac, the beginning of its manufacture, the establishment of the large and modern laboratories at Dayton, Ohio, occupying more than 60,000 feet of floor space, reads more like fiction than facts from latter-day commercial history.

SIXTEEN MILLION BOTTLES SOLD IN FIVE YEARS.

Although placed on the market but little more than five years ago, over sixteen million bottles have been sold, and its sales record probably has never been equaled in the history of the drug trade in America.

From coast to coast and from the Gulf to the Great Lakes, Tanlac is known and honored. Millions have taken it and have pronounced it the greatest medicine of all time. No matter where you go throughout the United States, whether East, West, North or South, Tanlac is a household word and is now unquestionably the most widely talked of medicine in the world today.

Briefly, this is the record of the truly marvelous medicine which will now be placed within the reach of every one. In only a few weeks' time it will be placed on sale in practically every large city, town, village and hamlet throughout the entire section.

"EIGHTY YEARS AND AFTER."

When a person has gone along to old age, in a fairly comfortable state of health, he has something to thank God for, because so few are permitted to do so. And, as a general thing, old people have thankful hearts, feeling that they have had their day of activity, and that it is only human nature for them to be laid on the shelf.

In many cases, though they may be old in body, they are not so in mind—having been permitted to retain the vigor of youth in their intellects, to their great gratification, and that of their friends. But some old men handicap their usefulness by their self-pitying of themselves. The world at large has little sympathy with those who have too voluble an appreciation of their limitations, especially is this so regarding old people, so they can smile back at them.

Harper's Magazine for December had a remarkable article entitled "Eighty Years and After," by Mr. W. D. Howells. Mr. Howells is a sort of a patron saint of this writer's—for several reasons. He was partly raised in Greene county; he set type on a Xenia newspaper when a youth; he is an editor, and although past 83 is still in the harness; his articles are always sprightly and very human—I read them with great delight.

His "Eighty Years and After" is so full of points which appeal to this octogenarian—which he recognizes as "common ground" of interest, that in the perusal he felt as if reading, in the matter of failing physical vitality and the loss of memory, what might be his own autobiography (asking pardon for the presumption of the "Dean of American Literature").

The whole of "Eighty Years and After" is so good that I would fain give it all, but must content myself with the following rather lengthy extracts:

I have treated of failing memory, especially in the reluctance of this or that word to come when we wanted it, though it was ready enough when not wanted; and now I should like to inquire of other old men whether they are equally forgetful in other matters. Of course, we all forget where we have put things, and are astounded to find them in places where we would like to be sworn we never put them. I have not happened to see dotards of my acquaintance going about crowned with the spectacles which they were ransacking the house for, and almost cursing and swearing in their failure to find, though I have heard of them often; and I have myself wandered in parallel oblivion till I had to abandon the search in despair. Yet if I have been charged by myself or others with duties, I never forget them, and I should like to think that no fellow-dotard of mine has failed in the like point. I should like to know also whether women who increase in years but who age no more than the angels, are equally subject to forgetfulness with old men.

If I have praised the loveliness of age in women, I must not forget that the most lovable of all the octogenarians I have known was my own father. He died immortally young at eighty-seven, and, until paralysis muted his laugh, was the blithest among us. Yet once he touched a matter that must often weigh upon hearts of the old. At eighty-two he grieved that he could do nothing to help in his own support, and tried to think of something. I could only remind him that his whole good and useful life had worked for him, and was working still, and I hope this comforted him a little.

After sixty one must not take too many chances with one's life, but I should say that the golden age of man is between fifty and sixty, when one may safely take them. One has peace then from the different passions; if one has been tolerably prosperous; one has fairly learned age's trade or has mastered one's art; age seems as far off as youth; one is not so much afraid of death as earlier; one likes joking as much as ever and loves beauty and truth as much; family cares are well out of the way; if one has married timely one no longer nightly walks the floor with even the youngest child; the marriage ring is then a circle half rounded in eternity. It is a blessed time; it is indeed the golden age, and no age after it is more than silver.

There is always the question whether one does wish to live, but for the average happy or unhappy man, I should say yes, yes. We could ignore the fact that there are some men so happy beyond the vast average that they cannot wish to live. These kill themselves, but, speaking without the statistics, I do not believe these are often people of eighty and after. Apparently life is seldom so unbearable with these that one almost never hears of their suicide.

Here I am at the end of my sheet, as the old-time letter-writer used to say, tempted to hold that the first failure of memory to give us the name of the person who has lost it, is the first token of death, the first falling leaf of autumn, the first flake of the winter's snow. But who knows? Whence is death, and out of what awful void or whither? All along the line of living from the moment of birth when we first catch our breath and cry out in terror of life, death has set his signals, beckoning us the way which we must go.

It will not avail against the fact whether we pray and praise, or whether we eat and drink the merciless mellow is coming. But what of it, mellow? No one knows whether it is mellow or not. We know that somewhere there is love, the love that welcomed us here, the love that draws us together in our pairings, the love that our children may live, the love in our children which shall soothe their fathers and mothers do not die before their time, even if their time shall be delayed till eighty and after.

After canvassing the entire country for a successor to Dr. Alber Shiels, superintendent of the city schools, the Los Angeles board of education selected a woman for the office, which carries a salary of $8,000 per annum. The choice fell to Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, formerly acting principal of the Los Angeles high school. Mrs. Dorsey is the first woman to be in charge of the schools of Los Angeles, which city is credited with spending more per capita for public education than any other city in the country.

BOOK THREE SHOWS AT OPERA HOUSE

Manager James D. Adair, of the Standard Amusement Company, is announcing the coming of three shows to the local opera house which will be booked here within the short space of seven days.

The first of the trio will be Harvey's Minstrels which will appear at the local house Saturday, January 31. The production is said to be the largest minstrel show on the road today, and carries special music. The Central Managers' Association, an organization of theater managers which pools the information concerning these shows and sends it to its membership, gives the production a good rating.

The minstrel offering will be followed by the old yet popular classic "Uncle Tom's Cabin," that seems rather to increase in popularity than to decrease as the years go by. The company is large, carries two bands and an orchestra, and is well spoken of by the Central Managers' Association. The performance here Tuesday, February 3.

The third of the coming trio will be "Oh Daddy," a musical comedy of startling situations, good looking chorus and clever leads and comedians, and will appear at the local theater, Saturday, February 7. The piece is given much praise in a recent issue of the Evening Telegram of Columbus, Indiana, where the production played January 16.

WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN BY TANLAC

Over Four Million Bottles Sold in 1919; The Fifth Year of its History.

Tanlac has brought a new romance to the commercial world. It is the story of an acceptance and appreciation of merit never before attained by proprietary medicine. Staid business men to whom the actual figures of the production of Tanlac have been presented have scouted them until the proof was shown. The production of Tanlac now stands at the rate of almost four million bottles per year. The exact figures are 3,992,809. The sale of a million bottles in the first nine months, which far exceeded any record ever made by a proprietary medicine, now seems insignificant.

OVER 17,000 BOTTLES A DAY

The sale for the first ten weeks of last year amounted to over One Million bottles, an average of over one hundred thousand bottles per week, which is at the rate of more than seventeen thousand bottles per day. It seems almost incredible, but these are actual figures and such is the record established by this wonderful medicine.

"One firm alone," said G. F. Willis, the international distributor of Tanlac, "has given orders for a total of 150,000 bottles within eight months' time. The firm I refer to is Spurluck-Neal Co. of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. C. S. Martin, president of this great firm, who is also president of the Southern Drug Jobbers' association will verify this statement.

"Tanlac is the result of many years of arduous study by Mr. Cooper and his principal chemist. In fact, the two of them have carefully watched its development from the beginning of the experimental stage to its present state of efficiency. So remarkable have been the results obtained from this medicine that I doubt seriously if either of these men realize the immensity of their success. Like many other great discoveries, it has required time to prove its far-reaching effects."

"EIGHTY YEARS AND AFTER."

When a person has gone along to old age, in a fairly comfortable state of health, he has something to thank God for, because so few are permitted to do so. And, as a general thing, old people have thankful hearts, feeling that they have had their day of activity, and that it is only human nature for them to be laid on the shelf.

In many cases, though they may be old in body, they are not so in mind—having been permitted to retain the vigor of youth in their intellects, to their great gratification, and that of their friends. But some old men handicap their usefulness by their self-pitying of themselves. The world at large has little sympathy with those who have too voluble an appreciation of their limitations, especially is this so regarding old people, so they can smile back at them.

Harper's Magazine for December had a remarkable article entitled "Eighty Years and After," by Mr. W. D. Howells. Mr. Howells is a sort of a patron saint of this writer's—for several reasons. He was partly raised in Greene county; he set type on a Xenia newspaper when a youth; he is an editor, and although past 83 is still in the harness; his articles are always sprightly and very human—I read them with great delight.

His "Eighty Years and After" is so full of points which appeal to this octogenarian—which he recognizes as "common ground" of interest, that in the perusal he felt as if reading, in the matter of failing physical vitality and the loss of memory, what might be his own autobiography (asking pardon for the presumption of the "Dean of American Literature").

The whole of "Eighty Years and After" is so good that I would fain give it all, but must content myself with the following rather lengthy extracts:

I have treated of failing memory, especially in the reluctance of this or that word to come when we wanted it, though it was ready enough when not wanted; and now I should like to inquire of other old men whether they are equally forgetful in other matters. Of course, we all forget where we have put things, and are astounded to find them in places where we would like to be sworn we never put them. I have not happened to see dotards of my acquaintance going about crowned with the spectacles which they were ransacking the house for, and almost cursing and swearing in their failure to find, though I have heard of them often; and I have myself wandered in parallel oblivion till I had to abandon the search in despair. Yet if I have been charged by myself or others with duties, I never forget them, and I should like to think that no fellow-dotard of mine has failed in the like point. I should like to know also whether women who increase in years but who age no more than the angels, are equally subject to forgetfulness with old men.

If I have praised the loveliness of age in women, I must not forget that the most lovable of all the octogenarians I have known was my own father. He died immortally young at eighty-seven, and, until paralysis muted his laugh, was the blithest among us. Yet once he touched a matter that must often weigh upon hearts of the old. At eighty-two he grieved that he could do nothing to help in his own support, and tried to think of something. I could only remind him that his whole good and useful life had worked for him, and was working still, and I hope this comforted him a little.

After sixty one must not take too many chances with one's life, but I should say that the golden age of man is between fifty and sixty, when one may safely take them. One has peace then from the different passions; if one has been tolerably prosperous; one has fairly learned one's trade or has mastered one's art; age seems as far off as youth; one is not so much afraid of death as earlier; one likes joking as much as ever and loves beauty and truth as much; family cares are well out of the way; if one has married timely one no longer nightly walks the floor with even the youngest child; the marriage ring is then a circle half round in eternity. It is a blessed time; it is indeed the golden age, and no age after it is more than silver.

There is always the question whether one does wish to live, but for the average happy or unhappy man, I should say yes, yes. We could ignore the fact that there are some men so happy beyond the vast average that they cannot wish to live. These kill themselves, but, speaking without the statistics, I do not believe these are often people of eighty and after. Apparently life is seldom so unbearable with these that one almost never hears of their suicide.

Here I am at the end of my sheet, as the old-time letter-writer used to say, tempted to hold that the first failure of memory to give us the name of the person who has lost it, is the first token of death, the first falling leaf of autumn, the first flake of the winter's snow. But who knows? Whence is death, and out of what awful void or whither? All along the line of living from the moment of birth when we first catch our breath and cry out in terror of life, death has set his signals, beckoning us the way which we must go.

It will not avail against the fact whether we pray and praise, or whether we eat and drink, the merciless morrow is coming. But when will it come? No one knows whether it is merciful or not. We know that somewhere there is love, the love that welcomed us here, the love that draws us together in our pairs, the love that our children may live, the love in our children which shall see that their fathers and mothers do not die before their time, even if their time shall be delayed till eighty and after.

BOOK THREE SHOWS AT OPERA HOUSE

Manager James D. Adair, of the Standard Amusement Company, is announcing the coming of three shows to the local opera house which will be booked here within the short space of seven days.

The first of the trio will be Harvey's Minstrels which will appear at the local house Saturday, January 31. The production is said to be the largest minstrel show on the road today, and carries special music. The Central Managers' Association, an organization of theater managers which pools the information concerning these shows and sends it to its membership, gives the production a good rating.

The minstrel offering will be followed by the old yet popular classic "Uncle Tom's Cabin," that seems rather to increase in popularity than to decrease as the years go by. The company is large, carries two bands and an orchestra, and is well spoken of by the Central Managers' Association. The performance here Tuesday, February 3.

The third of the coming trio will be "Oh Daddy," a musical comedy of startling situations, good looking chorists and clever leads and comedians, and will appear at the local theater, Saturday, February 7. The piece is given much praise in a recent issue of the Evening Telegram of Columbus, Indiana, where the production played January 16.

WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN BY TANLAC

Over Four Million Bottles Sold In 1919; The Fifth Year of its History.

Tanlac has brought a new romance to the commercial world. It is the story of an acceptance and appreciation of merit never before attained by proprietary medicine. Staid business men to whom the actual figures of the production of Tanlac have been presented have scouted them until the proof was shown. The production of Tanlac now stands at the rate of almost four million bottles per year. The exact figures are 3,992,800. The sale of a million bottles in the first nine months, which far exceeded any record ever made by a proprietary medicine, now seems insignificant.

OVER 17,000 BOTTLES A DAY The sale for the first ten weeks of last year amounted to over One Million bottles, an average of over one hundred thousand bottles per week, which is at the rate of more than seventeen thousand bottles per day. It seems almost incredible, but these are actual figures and such is the record established by this wonderful medicine.

"One firm alone," said G. F. Willis, the international distributor of Tanlac, "has given orders for a total of 150,000 bottles within eighteen months' time. The firm I refer to is Spurluck-Neal Co. of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. C. S. Martin, president of this great firm, who is also president of the Southern Drug Jobbers' association will verify this statement."

"Tanlac is the result of many years of arduous study by Mr. Cooper and his principal chemist. In fact, the two of them have carefully watched its development from the beginning of the experimental stage to its present state of efficiency. So remarkable have been the results obtained from this medicine that I doubt seriously if either of these men realize the immensity of their success. Like many other great discoveries, it has required time to prove its far-reaching effects."

Tanlac, the Celebrated Medicine Which Has Been Accomplishing Remarkable Results in the United States and Canada, Will Now Be Sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill—Remarkable Sales Record of Sixteen Million Bottles Phenomenal and Unprecedented.

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout the United States and Canada, and which has been having a phenomenal sale wherever it has been introduced, will now be sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill. The amazing success achieved by this medicine in only five years' time is not only phenomenal, but unprecedented.

The discovery of Tanlac, the beginning of its manufacture, the establishment of the large and modern laboratories at Dayton, Ohio, occupying more than 60,000 feet of floor space, reads more like fiction, than facts from latter-day commercial history.

SIXTEEN MILLION BOTTLES SOLD IN FIVE YEARS.

Although placed on the market but little more than five years ago, over sixteen million bottles have been sold, and its sales record probably has never been equaled in the history of the drug trade in America.

From coast to coast and from the Gulf to the Great Lakes, Tanlac is known and honored. Millions have taken it and have pronounced it the greatest medicine of all time. No matter where you go throughout the United States, whether East, West, North or South, Tanlac is a household word and is now unquestionably the most widely talked of medicine in the world today.

Briefly, this is the record of the truly marvelous medicine which will now be placed within the reach of every one. In only a few week's time it will be placed on sale in practically every large city, town, village and hamlet throughout the entire section.

MAY CLOSE SCHOOLS AS HALF NOW OUT ON ACCOUNT OF GRIP

With fifty per cent of the children in Central grades absent on account of illness, and a proportionally large number out in other schools, public school authorities were discussing Friday morning the advisability of closing schools until the present epidemic of grip has subsided.

Superintendent C. A. Waltz and Business Manager John R. Beachman of the Xenia schools said that it is hardly advisable to continue classes in session with so many absent, as the work will have to be repeated for the benefit of those who are out when they return.

J. W. Santmyer, president of the Board of Education said that school authorities were waiting for advice from Dr. R. H. Grube, health officer of the city, and would do whatever he thought proper regarding the question of closing the schools. The majority of the children ill of the epidemic are having it in a rather mild form.

MAY CLOSE SCHOOLS AS HALF NOW OUT ON ACCOUNT OF GRIP

With fifty per cent of the children in Central grades absent on account of illness, and a proportionally large number out in other schools, public school authorities were discussing Friday morning the advisability of closing schools until the present epidemic of grip has subsided.

Superintendent C. A. Waltz and Business Manager John R. Beachman of the Xenia schools said that it is hardly advisable to continue classes in session with so many absent, as the work will have to be repeated for the benefit of those who are out, when they return.

J. W. Santmyer, president of the Board of Education said that school authorities were waiting for advice from Dr. R. H. Grube, health officer of the city, and would do whatever he thought proper regarding the question of closing the schools. The majority of the children ill of the epidemic are having it in a rather mild form.

SAYS HUSBAND CAN SEE A BIG CHANGE IN HER

Benefits This Woman Gained on Voia-Tonic are Easily Noticed.

Although Mrs. Mary Bonner, of 737 Clark street, Cincinnati, O., has been taking Voia-Tonic, "Builder Of Strength," only a short time she is so much improved that she says her husband can see a big change in her. "I know that I feel a lot better and the fact that my husband can see such a big change in me is convincing proof of the work Voia-Tonic has been doing in my case," Mrs. Bonner said.

"My stomach troubled me and I also have been nervous and run down for a long time," she continued. "I had indigestion and constipation and gas always formed on my stomach after eating. I was constipated so badly that I had to take laxatives all the time."

"Now, consider that I have only taken one bottle of Voia-Tonic and then see if you don't think what the medicine has done for me has been unusual."

"The constipation is gone. I do not have to take laxatives at all now. The indigestion is much better also and I am never troubled with gas on my stomach after eating now. My nerves, too, have been greatly improved by Voia-Tonic and I notice that I have been built up all over."

"My husband says he can notice a big change in my condition and that is convincing proof that the medicine has done me a great deal of good."

"It is a real pleasure for me to recommend Voia-Tonic to everybody who is suffering as I did."

Voia-Tonic, "Builder Of Strength," brings the weakened, run down man or woman a good appetite and good digestion. It helps the stomach take strengthening nutrition from food to nourish and build up the body and system all over. Voia-Tonic also helps the nerves and permits sound, energy restoring sleep every night.

As a result, the weakened, run down man or woman soon returns to full normal strength and health.

Voia-Tonic, "Builder Of Strength," is being specially introduced in Xenia at Sayre & Hemphill's.

SAYS HUSBAND CAN SEE A BIG CHANGE IN HER

Benefits This Woman Gained on Voia-Tonic are Easily Noticed.

Although Mrs. Mary Bonnar, of 737 Clark street, Cincinnati, O., has been taking Voia-Tonic, "Builder Of Strength," only a short time she is so much improved that she says her husband can see a big change in her. "I know that I feel a lot better and the fact that my husband can see such a big change in me is convincing proof of the work Voia-Tonic has been doing in my case," Mrs. Bonnar said.

"My stomach troubled me and I also have been nervous and run down for a long time," she continued. "I had indigestion and constipation and gas always formed on my stomach after eating. I was constipated so badly that I had to take laxatives all the time."

"Now, consider that I have only taken one bottle of Voia-Tonic and then see if you don't think what the medicine has done for me has been unusual."

"The constipation is gone. I do not have to take laxatives at all now. The indigestion is much better also and I am never troubled with gas on my stomach after eating now. My nerves, too, have been greatly improved by Voia-Tonic and I notice that I have been built up all over."

"My husband says he can notice a big change in my condition and that is convincing proof that the medicine has done me a great deal of good."

"It is a real pleasure for me to recommend Voia-Tonic to everybody who is suffering as I did."

Voia-Tonic, "Builder Of Strength," brings the weakened, run down man or woman a good appetite and good digestion. It helps the stomach take strengthening nutrition from food to nourish and build up the body and system all over. Voia-Tonic also helps the nerves and permits sound, energy restoring sleep every night. As a result, the weakened, run down man or woman soon returns to full normal strength and health.

Voia-Tonic, "Builder Of Strength," is being specially introduced in Xenia at Sayre & Hemphill's.

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF AUTO TAX LAW BEING QUESTIONED

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 22.—Constitutionality of the new graduated auto tax law was upheld here by Common Pleas Judge E. B. Kinkead. Reasons for the decision, Judge Kinkead said were that new burdens created by automobiles on public highways call for a sufficient tax; and that the measure can be sustained as an excise or privilege tax for using the roads. The judge held that the provisions of the new auto tax law do not exceed the privileges automobilists derive from the use of public highways. He declared that the legislature, if it wanted to, could go back to the toll gate idea. Under the provisions of the auto tax law all taxes collected are to be used for road maintenance and repair, half of it going to the state

PROHIBITION WORRIES EVEN DIPLOMATS

Washington, Jan. 22.—Prohibition is worrying even the diplomats. The state department today is in quandry as to whether a ruling of prohibition should be issued to members of the diplomatic corps of the United States. American embassies in foreign lands are technically a part of the United States, and thereby the embassies in the strictest sense must be dry. Dry banquets and social function in "wet" countries would place the American embassies at a distinct disadvantage, officials admit, for light wines and beverages are considered as necessities to dinners in many foreign countries. (GROUND HOG DAY) at 12:30 p. m.

(Grand Champion Car Load International Show, Chicago, 1919)

60 Bred Hampshire
Sows and Gilts
and two Boars at the farm residence of Samuel
Johns, one mile south of the court house at Wilmington, O.

Mr. Farmer please study the following facts, as they are true and we defy anyone to dispute them. Many breeders and persons connected with Hampshire Hogs thought at the end of 1918 that this great breed had reached its zenith during that year and competitors said that the Hampshire breed had done all that it could and would not advance any farther; you be your own judge if this is true.

Hampshires started out with a good sale season in 1919, NO FLIGHTY PRICES, no $1,500 per average in a single sale, as were published for breeding stock by some other breeds, the Hampshire top sale was $335 per head, but in the total of all sales they outstripped their nearest competitors, in the sum total of all sales by $8 per head, with honest straight forward paying records and at the end of the season was the highest over all breeds.

From the Kentucky Agricultural College, the Hampshire barrow had outgrown all their favorite breeds; he possessed only 6 per cent bone; he weighed 600 pounds and dressed in real meat 90,291 per cent of his live weight; this is a better record than any other hog has ever been known to make, and it came from the Kentucky Agricultural College.

From the Nebraska Agricultural College, we are told that the Hampshires are growing with the so called BIG TYPE POLAND CHINA, living in the same lot, eating the same feed, sleeping in the same bed but the Hampshires each month run from 10 to 20 pounds ahead—the finish of the experiment was the International

Swine Show at Chicago; The Nebraska Agricultural College furnished the Champion barrow; at one year old the Hampshires were over 100 pounds per head the heaviest; same conditions of raising throughout. In the car load classes the Hampshire had the best hogs in the heavy weight class, and won 1st, and in the medium weights and won 1st. Several cars were started to feed for the light weight class but they all got too heavy. The heavy weight Hampshire car load became Champion over all breeds in 1918 and 1919 in car load classes.

The average selling price of the Hampshires at the International in 1919 was $19 per hundred, Poland Chinas was $16.19 per hundred, Duroc Jerseys was $16.13 per hundred. This shows how much more the packer thinks of the Hampshire than he does of other breeds.

The man who buys a Hampshire now is the man who has started for the greatest and most popular success.

The sow, Merry Look, of Glenview, that Zene G. Hadley recently sold for $2,150, is the record high priced sow of the breed; most all of this offering is related to her and some of them are better than she was at their age.

We are not expecting high prices but would very much appreciate your attendance and think that it would be to our mutual interest for you to purchase a sow or gilt from this offering.

A CHEERFUL HOME-COMING

Home means comfort and good cheer when there is a CALORIC FURNACE in the basement.

Your slippers, pipe, favorite reading and the CALORIC are a combination that make you forget the howling wind and drifting snow. And how the wife and children appreciate such a home—warm and comfortable in every room.

More than 50,000 satisfied users testify to the splendid success they have had with the

This is the furnace which has revolutionized heating. Instead of using numerous pipes and registers, it heats the entire house through only one register. It is therefore easily installed in new or old houses, usually in the day, without interfering with your present heating arrangements.

The CALORIC heats all types of homes up to eighteen rooms, also churches, stores, factories, halls and other buildings. It burns coal, coke, wood, gas or kerosene, and, because of special patented features, saves from 1/4 to 1/2 your fuel. The CALORIC is sold under the Monitor Iron-Clad Guarantee, which insures the purchaser thorough and economical heat. Call on us, or write for the new CALORIC catalog.

ONLY MIRACLE CAN SAVE 5 SOCIALISTS FROM EXPULSION

Members Under Trial Termed "Menace" to Government.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 22.—After two days of fighting to test the authority of the state assembly to oust them, the five socialist members came to the assembly chamber this morning prepared to hear witnesses presented by the attorney general of the state, tell of socialist activities and of socialist plans to upset the government of the United States.

Little doubt remains, that no matter how long the proceedings may continue, nothing short of a miracle will save the five socialists from expulsion. In the socialist camp everybody is preparing for the final unseating of the five men. The address of Martin Littleton late yesterday in which he set forth in a general way, ignoring technicalities and the niceties of legal procedure, the menace he saw in the socialist party and its plans made a hit with several members of the judiciary committee which is trying the men.

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF AUTO TAX LAW BEING QUESTIONED

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 22.—Constitutionality of the new graduated auto tax law was upheld here by Common Pleas Judge E. B. Kinkead.

Reasons for the decision, Judge Kinkead said were that new burdens created by automobiles on public highways call for a sufficient tax; and that the measure can be sustained as an excise or privilege tax for using the roads.

The judge held that the provisions of the new auto tax law do not exceed the privileges automobilists derive from the use of public highways. He declared that the legislature, if it wanted to, could go back to the toll gate idea.

Under the provisions of the auto tax law all taxes collected are to be used for road maintenance and repair, half of it going to the state

PROHIBITION WORRIES EVEN DIPLOMATS

Washington, Jan. 22.—Prohibition is worrying even the diplomats.

The state department today is in quandry as to whether a ruling of prohibition should be issued to members of the diplomatic corps of the United States.

American embassies in foreign lands are technically a part of the United States, and thereby the embassies in the strictest sense must be dry.

Dry banquets and social function in "wet" countries would place the American embassies at a distinct disadvantage, officials admit, for light wines and beverages are considered as necessities to dinners in many foreign countries.

60 Bred Hampshire
Sows and Gilts
and two Boars at the

Johns, one mile south of the

Wilmington, O.

Mr. Farmer please study the following facts, as they are true and we defy anyone to dispute them. Many breeders and persons connected with Hampshire Hogs thought at the end of 1918 that this great breed had reached its zenith during that year and competitors said that the Hampshire breed had done all that it could and would not advance any farther; you be your own judge if this is true.

Hampshires started out with a good sale season in 1919, NO FLIGHTY PRICES, no $1,500 per average in a single sale, as were published for breeding stock by some other breeds, the Hampshire top sale was $335 per head, but in the total of all sales they outstripped their nearest competitors, in the sum total of all sales by $8 per head, with honest straight forward paying records and at the end of the season was the highest over all breeds.

From the Kentucky Agricultural College, the Hampshire barrow had outgrown all their favorite breeds; he possessed only 6 per cent bone; he weighed 600 pounds and dressed in real meat 90,291 per cent of his live weight; this is a better record than any other hog has ever been known to make, and it came from the Kentucky Agricultural College.

From the Nebraska Agricultural College, we are told that the Hampshires are growing with the so called BIG TYPE POLAND CHINA, living in the same lot, eating the same feed, sleeping in the same bed but the Hampshires each month run from 10 to 20 pounds ahead—the finish of the experiment was the International

Swine Show at Chicago; The Nebraska Agricultural College furnished the Champion barrow; at one year old the Hampshires were over 100 pounds per head the heaviest; same conditions of raising throughout. In the car load classes the Hampshire had the best hogs in the heavy weight class, and won 1st, and in the medium weights and won 1st. Several cars were started to feed for the light weight class but they all got too heavy. The heavy weight Hampshire car load became Champion over all breeds in 1918 and 1919 in car load classes.

The average selling price of the Hampshires at the International in 1919 was $19 per hundred, Poland Chinas was $16.19 per hundred, Duroc Jerseys was $16.13 per hundred. This shows how much more the packer thinks of the Hampshire than he does of other breeds.

The man who buys a Hampshire now is the man who has started for the greatest and most popular success.

The sow, Merry Look, of Glenview, that Zene G. Hadley recently sold for $2,150, is the record high priced sow of the breed; most all of this offering is related to her and some of them are better than she was at their age.

We are not expecting high prices but would very much appreciate your attendance and think that it would be to our mutual interest for you to purchase a sow or gilt from this offering.

THE LONELY HEARTH

By RALPH HAMILTON

(Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union)

"The same old Randal Worth, eh?"
"In patience and duty, I hope so."
Martin Brill looked curiously about the living room of the old house in which his friend lived all by himself. It had seen better days, but its age was well concealed by the efforts at care and neatness.

"Of course, it's home, and you love it," spoke Brill, "but you're made for something better in a social way than for a solitary old bachelor, and in a business way for a plodding existence as a store clerk."

"That's all well enough," replied Worth, "but I couldn't break away from the only home I have ever known, and, to preserve it for myself and the others, I don't dare to make any experiments."

"The others!" retorted Brill with asperity. "Do you ever think of your own right and pleasure?"

"I don't count particularly against those I love," said Worth, soberly. "I'm older than Esther, my sister, and Norman, my brother. Then there's his wife and three little children. How I miss them! How I would like to have them back with me! You see, Norman caught the farm craze, and I had to help him out in buying some land way out West. Sister Esther joined the family, but I don't think they have made much of a go out of it. It's a cold, cheerless spot, and the soil is not much good. Maybe they'll be coming along back soon. I hope so."

"And you are all ready for them, eh?" suggested Brill, with a sweep of his hand across the semi-circle of chairs.

"Why, yes," assented Worth, with a warm smile. "The first three are for Norman, his wife and Esther. Then that next chair for the oldest boy, the small rocker for little Walter, and the high chair for Baby Ruth. I'll sit in the middle."

"And that old-fashioned rocker next to it?" queried Brill.

"Why that was mother's old favorite," explained Randal reverently. "I like to think of her, and," flushing slightly, "maybe I'll sometime find some worthy person to fill it."

Martin Brill smiled secretly. He had heard that Randal had been an occasional escort for pretty Netta Searle, whom Randal had known from her childhood. There, too, was the self-sacrificing nature of Randal displayed, for but the money help he bestowed upon his brother and his family, and keeping open for them the old home, he might think of taking to himself a wife.

"Well, I hope your dream comes true," said Brill affectionately. "If your rovers do come back, it looks to me as though you and Norman ought to be able jointly to make ends meet finely. No disguise with a true friend, Randal; you want and need Netta Searle in your life. Get her."

That might be possible, reflected Randal as his friend went his way, but he was in no position to support her as he should do. His brother had not only drawn on his reserves originally, but had later been unable to even meet the interest on his mortgage, and Randal had to help him out. Norman's only prospect was to sell his equity in the farm, but that did not seem easy to do. A great gleam of joy came into the face of Randal one day a week later as he received a letter. It contained wonderful news! Norman had disposed of his interest in his property for $4,000. He and his eager brood were coming home forthwith. He would pay Randal half of the money; together they would invest in some safe little business, and live together in the dear old home, with their loved ones about them.

Randal had not visited Netta for nearly a fortnight. He was so elated, however, at the grand news he had received that he saw light ahead. He did not tell Netta of his unexpected good fortune, but she was so pleased at his coming that he went home confident and happy.

What a week of work was that for Randal! How he tidied up the room and furnished the antique furniture! The semi-circular row of chairs came in for full exertion of his energy and attention. It had existed ever since the day Norman and his family went away. It should not be disturbed now!

One evening Randal came over to the Searle home in a vast state of excitement. Netta was standing at the gate, thinking of him.

"Netta, I want you to come over to the house, if you will. My brother and his family have returned, and I want you to see them."

"Oh! how happy you must be to have them under the home roof once more!" exclaimed Netta, and she accompanied Randal gladly. He halted with her just beyond the open window of the lighted living room. Randal gazed within. Six of the chairs around the fireplace were filled, just as Randal had planned and hoped for two long, lonely years. He drew close to Netta's side.

"There are two vacant chairs," he said. "Netta, will you join me in filling them?"

"Oh, gladly!" replied Netta, and then she flushed and trembled, for the love-light in Randal's eyes was unmistakable.

"Not for this evening only, dearly beloved one," he whispered tenderly; "but while life lasts for us!"

Martin Brill smiled secretly. He had heard that Randal had been an occasional escort for pretty Netta Searle, whom Randal had known from her childhood. There, too, was the self-sacrificing nature of Randal displayed, for but the money help be bestowed upon his brother and his family, and keeping open for them the old home, he might think of taking to himself a wife.

"Well, I hope your dream comes true," said Brill affectionately. "If your rovers do come back, it looks to me as though you and Norman ought to be able jointly to make ends meet finely. No disguise with a true friend, Randal; you want and need Netta Searle in your life. Get her."

That might be possible, reflected Randal as his friend went his way, but he was in no position to support her as he should do. His brother had not only drawn on his reserves originally, but had later been unable to even meet the interest on his mortgage, and Randal had to help him out. Norman's only prospect was to sell his equity in the farm, but that did not seem easy to do. A great gleam of joy came into the face of Randal one day a week later as he received a letter. It contained wonderful news! Norman had disposed of his interest in his property for $4,000. He and his eager brood were coming home forthwith. He would pay Randal half of the money; together they would invest in some safe little business, and live together in the dear old home, with their loved ones about them.

Randal had not visited Netta for nearly a fortnight. He was so elated, however, at the grand news he had received that he saw light ahead. He did not tell Netta of his unexpected good fortune, but she was so pleased at his coming that he went home confident and happy.

What a week of work was that for Randal! How he tidied up the room and burnished the antique furniture! The semi-circular row of chairs came in for full exertion of his energy and attention. It had existed ever since the day Norman and his family went away. It should not be disturbed now!

One evening Randal came over to the Searle home in a vast state of excitement. Netta was standing at the gate, thinking of him.

"Netta, I want you to come over to the house, if you will. My brother and his family have returned, and I want you to see them."

"Oh! how happy you must be to have them under the home roof once more!" exclaimed Netta, and she accompanied Randal gladly. He halted with her just beyond the open window of the lighted living room. Raptly Netta gazed within. Six of the chairs around the fireplace were filled, just as Randal had planned and hoped for two long, lonely years. He drew close to Netta's side.

"There are two vacant chairs," he said. "Netta, will you join me in filling them?"

"Oh, gladly!" replied Netta, and then she flushed and trembled for the love-light in Randal's eyes was unmistakable.

"Not for this evening only, dearly beloved one," he whispered tenderly; "but while life lasts for us!"

TAKE A NEW LEASE ON LIFE

Cleanse Your Blood of Those Poisons Which are Daily Undermining Your Health

There are a great many people who are sick, yet manage to do their work and drag along day after day, feeling miserable, discouraged and tired all the time. They do not know what is the matter and their physicians cannot name the disease.
In many cases this state of poor health is caused by poisoned blood. At one time or another, possibly years back, the blood was contaminated or tainted by biliousness, constipation, kidney and other diseases.
These conditions of poisoned blood are made known by general debility or gradual loss of health, pimples, boils, sores, eruptive skin diseases and chronic catarrh.
If you have reason to believe your present state of ill health is due to an accumulation of impurities, which have clogged and poisoned your blood, marked by aching bones, swollen joints and pain, you should at once begin the use of a treatment that will cleanse your blood and restore the vital organs of your body to a natural and healthy state.

Prescription C-2223 is a liquid medicinal preparation that stands above all other remedies as an alternative of great power. It restores normal functions to those organs or tissues which are not performing their full work. It changes diseased conditions into conditions of health. It relieves certain congested and irritable conditions of the mucous membrane and has marked influence on the intestinal organs in removing impure and waste products from the body.
Prescription C-2223 is really an unusual compound of certain valuable medicinal agents and can be depended on to give results where all other treatments have failed, because it is the private formula of a prominent and successful physician, now long since retired.
This Prescription has given relief to so many thousands who suffered from diseases caused by poisoned blood, that the manufacturers authorize druggists to give back the $3.00 paid for two $1.50 bottles, if the treatment, when taken according to directions, does not give satisfying relief.
If your druggist cannot supply you with $1.50 bottles write Dept. A, 2223 Laboratory, Memphis, Tenn., for literature, 1920 Almanac and samples of 2223 Liver Pills.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Keep her locks dark and beautiful. Thousands of women who have tried this even color, a beautiful pink shade of hair which is so active, use only this old-time recipe. Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of our ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which does the hair so naturally, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but when it begins to show again, the Sage and Sulphur Compound is there, beautifying, darkening the hair after a few applications. It also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it the appearance of abundance. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Grip, Influenza

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Reliable Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and sniff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.

Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at druggists. Guaranteed.

TOWNSHIPS WITHOUT HEALTH PROTECTION UNDER NEW MEASURE

Numerous calls are coming to the health department of Xenia from physicians and health officials in various parts of the county for advice as to how to proceed in the presence of the present grip epidemic. Last fall, in accordance with the provisions of the "Hughes Health Law," a county board of health was organized. At the adjourned meeting of the legislature in December the "Hughes Law" was attacked and threatened with repeal, but a bill termed "The Griswold Act" was substituted for the "Hughes Act." This bill restored the health organizations of cities to their former status but retained the new order in the counties outside the cities, retaining the boards of health as organized last fall but dropping from their membership non resident members, or those residing in the city. As the new order went into effect January first, the old health organizations of the townships and villages went out of commission. Since the county board of health has not yet reorganized under the provisions of the "Griswold Act" and employed a county commissioner of health as that act directs, the townships and villages in the county are without any health protection, an unfortunate state of affairs in the present emergency and a much more serious matter if cases of small-pox, scarlet fever or diphtheria should appear.

best examples of that form of entertainment that makes the heartiest sort of appeal to the eye and ear. It takes you out of the doldrums by its rapidity and movement, its brilliancy and cleverness. It has a fine, though not a large chorus and it boasts of an olio of headlights in the way of clever comedians and excellent specialties, some of a sensational class, that, as a rule, are not seen outside the larger cities. The music is the kind that will make you whistle in spite of yourself and it is tuneful enough to suit the most exacting ear.

SHOOTS HUSBAND AND THEN TRIES SUICIDE

Dayton, O., Jan. 23.—"I love him so much I did not want to lose him, so I shot him, and then shot myself."

This was the reason given by Mrs. Millie Adams, 25, for shooting her husband, John Adams, 32, in the head with a revolver at their home 2210 East Third street, Thursday night, and then turning the weapon on herself. Both are in St. Elizabeth hospital. Their wounds are not thought to be fatal.

Mrs. Adams declared that when she asked her husband to stay home at night he refused. Monday he sued her for divorce, but Wednesday night they became reconciled.

The next day, she said, a friend persuaded him to continue the divorce proceedings. When he told her he was going to leave her she shot him, then fired a bullet into her breast.

Adams is a musician and friends say that his love of music was the reason for his remaining away from home at night, to play, instead of staying with his wife.

INCLEMENT WEATHER DETRIMENT TO SALE

Icy conditions of the roads and other unfavorable weather conditions prevented a large crowd attending the public sale of property of Moses A. Hagler, which was held on the Hagler farm on the Stone road, Thursday. Sixteen head of cattle were sold, and a large amount of farm machinery, vineyard and fruit farm implements, sugar making outfit and gasoline engine.

Mr. Hagler, who for years conducted one of the largest and most successful fruit farms in the county, sold his property some time ago owing to ill health, and with Mrs. Hagler will move to this city where he bought the Sutton property on East Market street, now occupied as a parsonage by the First United Presbyterian church.
